Town Clerk Information

Dog licenses are usually due March 31. Due to the State of Emergency declared by the Board of Health, the deadline will be extended to April 30. While the Town offices are closed, payments can be mailed with a self-addressed, stamped envelope, or made online on the Town of Orange website (www.townoforange.org).

Many people need to get a copy of a Birth or Marriage Certificate in order to obtain the new Real ID. If you need a Birth or Marriage Certificate, call the Town Clerk (978-544-1100, ext. 101) to verify that it is available. Once verified, you can mail a self-addressed, stamped envelope and a check to the Town Clerk, or you can make the payment online.

Payments for dog licenses or birth and marriage certificates can also be left in the silver box on the outside of the town hall.

If you have other questions or need other documents from the Town Clerk, please call 978-544-1100, ext. 101. The town offices will be staffed during our regular business.
